SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT!

Robson Valley Community Services

The Village of McBride is proud to recognize Robson Valley Community Services (RVCS) as a Gold Sponsor of the upcoming Robson Valley Agriculture Forum!

About RVCS

Established in 1980, RVCS is a charitable non-profit dedicated to improving the lives of residents in Valemount, McBride, and the Robson Valley region. Offering a wide range of client-centered services for all ages, RVCS focuses on well-being, safety, and inclusion. Their holistic, trauma-informed approach fosters resilience and connection across our communities.

Why the Agriculture Forum Matters to RVCS

RVCS recognizes that agriculture is vital to the Robson Valley's economy, culture, and sustainability. Supporting the Agriculture Forum aligns with their mission to promote community well-being and strengthen local networks. Agriculture contributes to food security, economic stability, and environmental stewardship—values that are deeply connected to RVCS's work supporting individuals and families.

In Their Words

"RVCS proudly supports the Robson Valley Agriculture Forum as part of our commitment to community-led development, local sustainability, and holistic well-being. Food is foundational to health, dignity, and resilience. Through food literacy programming, food security initiatives, and client support, we strive to ensure that everyone in our community can thrive. Strong local food systems are essential to building inclusive, empowered, and connected communities across the Robson Valley."

Thank you, RVCS, for your leadership and your commitment to the well-being of the Robson Valley residents!
