WORLDATLAS.COM

McBride # 2 out of 7 offbeat towns in the Rockies to visit in 2025

Nestled in the Robson Valley of British Columbia, McBride is a seemingly tiny town that offers big adventures year-round. Even the McBride Heritage Railway Station is special, as it's an original 1919 train station that still operates today. It also houses the Whistle Stop Gallery featuring works by local artists, and the Beanery2Bistro open for breakfast and lunch. A short stroll or drive from the station, you can do a leisurely picnic or launch your boat into the Fraser River at Phil & Jennie Gagliardi Park. Full story can be found:
